Whooping Cough.

I had a little boy who was nearly dead from an attack of whooping cough. My neighbors recommended Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. tion. Otherwise one would have been held in the evening, enabling each to enjoy both. Both churches were handsomely decorated with flowers and appropriate mottoes, which could not fail to please the beauty-loving eye. We regret we failed to secure the program used at the Congregational church, which we attended. The services were unique and pleasing in every way. The singing was extremely well rendered, Mrs. Bert Hastings presiding at the organ. A number of fine anthems were rendered, and among the singers, we cannot resist giving special praise to Miss Ida Hart and Miss Dague, at present staying with Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Penfield. Both young voices were sweet and pleasing to the ear, and we hope to hear them again. Among the speakers, Miss Delphine Biggs, Bertha Lewis, Lillie Crow, Lonnie Taylor and the little boy, who declared in favor of the small boy, are especially to be remembered. Miss Winnie Starr did best of all. She is "all-wool and a yard wide;" no shoddy there. The ladies deserve much praise for their work in bringing all to a happy conclusion. Had we time and space, we might say many pretty things that must be omitted.

A great many of our young people attended a surprise party at the hospital home of Harvey Brouse, on Friday night last. It was gotten up in honor of the daughter, who has been a pupil of the center high school for some time. All report a good time and hope to "do it again" at no distant day.

A surprise party on Monday evening last at the home of Homer Sooy, Sr., for his daughter, Margie.

STRANGE, BUT TRUE.

It may seem strange, but it is a fact, that we can send you the Farm Journal for the balance of 1899 and all of 1900, 1901, 1902 and 1903, nearly five years if you will pay for the Enterprise one year ahead—both papers for just the price of ours. Whether you can reap the advantages of this surprising offer depends on how soon you come forward with the cash.

THE NEW YORK WORLD,

THRICE-A-WEEK EDITION.

Practically a Daily at the Price of a Weekly.

The striking and important events of the past year have established the overwhelming value of the Thrice-a-Week World to every reader. For an almost nominal sum it has kept its subscribers informed of the progress of all our wars, and, moreover, has reported them as promptly as if it were a daily. With our interests still extending throughout the world, with our troops operating in the Philippines, and the great presidential campaign, too, at hand, its value is further increased.

The motto of the Thrice-a-Week World is improvement. It strives each year to be better than it was the year before, and public confidence in it is shown by the fact that it now circulates more than twice as many papers every week as any other newspaper.

R. Hanley, administrator of the estate of Benjamin R. Coats, deceased, on the 14th day of March, A. D. 1899, filed his petition in the Probate Court of said county, alleging that the personal property of decedent's estate is insufficient to pay his debts, and the charges of administering his estate. That said decedent died seized in fee simple of the following described real estate in said county, to-wit:

Village lots Nos. 31, 32, 33 and 34 in the Village of Rochester. The prayer of said petition is for a sale of said property for the payment of the debts and charges aforesaid.

Said Reuben Coats will take notice that he has been made a party defendant to said petition, and that he is required to answer the same on or before the 5th day of August, A. D. 1899.

JOHN R. HANLEY, Adm'r of the Estate of Benjamin R. Coats, deceased.

May 31, 1899.
